How Much Do You Know ... About the Bible?

Matthew 5:17-20

Jesus came to _____ the Law and the Prophets, not to _____.

“For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass _____, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the _____ till all is fulfilled.”

“Whoever therefore _____ one of the least of these commandments, and _____ men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven...”

Ones who does and teaches the commandments would be called _____ in the kingdom of _____.

“For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the _____ and _____, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 5:21-26

Jesus said anyone who is _____ with his brother without a _____ is in danger of the judgment.

“But whoever says, ‘You _____!’ shall be in danger of _____ fire.”

“First be _____ to your _____, and then come and offer your gift.”

“Agree with your _____ quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the _____...”

“Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of _____ till you have paid the last _____.”

Last week's scripture solutions:

Matthew 5:1-12: True; kingdom, heaven; the meek; obtain, mercy; exceedingly, prophets

Matthew 5:13-16: salt, light; flavor, seasoned; world, hidden; basket; shine, glorify

This Sunday is “Mother’s Day.” It is a day when gratitude is expressed to our mothers. Mother’s Day in America began a century ago when Anna Jarvis wanted to honor her mother and the ladies in her church. Anna was so intent on calling on Americans to honor all mothers, she petitioned Congress and the U.S. President to make Mother’s Day an official holiday.

So why do we have Mother’s Day? Because everyone needs a godly mother! Paul indicated that the reason Timothy became such a godly man is because of his mother and grandmother who were full of faith (2 Timothy 3:14-15).

In short, the reason we have “Mother’s Day” is because most of us understand how great our moms are and we want to thank them for being our mothers, grandmothers and the mothers of our children.

“Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you” (Exodus 20:12; see Ephesians 6:1-3).

We can still honor our mothers even if they no longer live on this earth. The greatest way we can honor them is by living the Christian life because we know that in heaven the residents still rejoice whenever we make the right decisions (see Luke 15:7).
