Spiritual Living

Purpose & Result

Spiritual Living is Possible...

For the one knows he's sinful

Matt. 5.3; 1 Jhn 1.6–10; Rom 7.15–24

Who's been given to us as a gift...

Luke 11.13; John 7.39a; Acts 2.38, 5.32; Eph 2.19–22; Gal 3.2

It's the product & desire of God's Spirit

For our faith in Jesus Christ

1 Cor 6.11; Rom 3.22

The background features several detailed illustrations of fruit. In the top left, a pomegranate is shown with one side cut open to reveal its red seeds, surrounded by green leaves. To its right, there are clusters of green and purple grapes on vines with leaves. In the bottom right, an olive branch with green leaves and yellow-green olives is depicted. Scattered around the text are several individual fruits, including red pomegranate seeds, a single green grape, and a single olive.

But the produce of the Spirit is love, delight, peace, patience, kindness, morality, confidence, gentleness, self-control; against such things [there] is no law.

Galatians 5.22–23

If I were to speak with the tongues of mankind, even of angels, but I wouldn't have love, I have become an echoing bronze or a wailing cymbal. And if I were to have prophecy and I had come to know all mysteries and all knowledge and if I were to have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I wouldn't have love, I'm nothing. And if I parceled out all my belongings and if I handed over my body so that I could boast, but I wouldn't have love, [it's] no help at all.

Galatians 5.22–23

So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience; bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you. Beyond all these things [put on] love, which is the perfect bond of unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body; and be thankful.
