Message to the community: Hey, God loves you. The church at James Avenue would like to invite you to an evening of petitioning God in prayer and song, with Bible readings, on behalf of our nation this coming Wednesday night from 7-8 PM. All are welcome. This country is suffering under politically polarized rage, accusation, indignation, fear, and sin-stained senses of heroism. It has been reported this week (via BBC) that political acts of violence on US soil have nearly doubled since this time last year. Different folks perceive different enemies within and without our borders, we have flawed human leaders; and our world, to its own dismay, has embraced murders, assaults, and attempts as a form of protest against people on both sides of our political spectrum. Please gather with us this Wednesday night to ask God for His blessings and wisdom and to submit ourselves to His Word. Remember the opportunity of fasting.

Scriptures to be read aloud include: 1 Timothy 2.1-6; Psalm 94; Romans 8.12-39, 12.9-13.14; Matt 5.1-26, 38-48; 1 Peter 2.13-17, 4.15-17; Colossians 4.5-6; Psalm 31, 62; Philippians 3.17-4.9
